Kargil Vijay Divas

On July 26th 2017, NCC department M.S.G. Arts, Science & Commerce College, Malegaon celebrated 'Kargil Vijay Divas' to commemorate India's military victory and to pay tribute to the Kargil martyrs, who were a symbol of heroism and sacrifice in defending our country's frontiers. The event started with a brief introduction of Kargil Vijay Divas by Captain R.A. Pawar.

On this day in 1999, India effectively recovered the Kargil heights from Pakistani infiltrators, bringing the 60-day 'Operation Vijay' to a close. It was done to honour the nation's true heroes and to urge youth to support a patriotic cause. Patriotism is a social value that should be developed in student cadets at the college level to ensure that they become responsible citizens of our country. Our warriors battled against all odds and provided great sacrifices to uphold the honour, pride, and integrity of the Nation and this event are aimed at 'Remembering their sacrifice', 'Rejoicing the victory' and 'Renewing the pledge'.

Activities such as the Voluntary Oratorical competition were held to instill a sense of patriotism in the cadets while also polishing their creativity and imagination. The number of cadets participated=70

Cleanliness on every Friday

It is Mahatma Gandhi's throughout his life, he showed, promoted, and insisted on individual and societal cleanliness. Following in his footsteps, the Swatch Bharat Mission campaign saw good results. This vision will be put into action by enlisting community support for clean toilets and integrated waste management in order to create open defecation-free, dust-free, plastic-free.

Captain R.A. Pawar and CTO B.B. Waghmare monitored a cleanliness initiative to raise awareness about the importance of keeping the environment clean. Every Friday, all of our cadets enthusiastically engaged in the cleaning drive initiative. It also promotes pleasant and happy thoughts in the head, which inhibits the onset of diseases. The number of cadets participated-90

Republic day

It is the day that the monarchy was abolished in the country. On January 26, 1950, India was declared a sovereign, socialist, secular, democratic republic, and the Constitution of India granted its citizens justice, equality, and liberty. "January 26 is an important date in the life of all Indian citizens. This day gave us the ability to choose our own representatives to govern our democracy.

Our principal, Dr.Y.T. Pawar, raised the National Flag. Then we saluted the flag and sang the National Anthem together. Following our principal's observation of the unit and the cadets' March pass. Cadets also participated in a cultural presentation on campus. Some cadets performed patriotic songs. While we celebrate Republic Day with pomp and circumstance, we should also remember the sacrifices made by the freedom fighters that made this day possible.
